

Brown County Alcohol and Other Drug Court
BBC County Congress of Elected and Appointed Officials
January 18, 2008

BBC County Congress of Elected and Appointed Officials brings in speakers on a variety of topics with county-wide impact.

This forum featured Judge John Rodenberg and other members of the Alcohol and Other Drug (AOD) Court team.

Team members shared how team members from the county court system, probation, medical community, family services, employers, law enforcement and education are addressing the complex cases that alcohol and drug abusing offenders present. They covered the principles, the effectiveness and eligibility requirements for AOD Court.

For more information about this program, check out the Brown County Probation website at <http://www.co.brown.mn.us/Departments/Probation/mainweb.htm> .

Bridging Brown County

The Brown County Congress is sponsored by Bridging Brown County. This event provides an opportunity for key community leaders to come together, build partnerships and communicate with decision-makers. For more information about our organization and programs, please visit our web site, www.bridgingbrowncounty.org.