

On June 11, Network Brown County Leadership participants had the opportunity to tour New Ulm. The group toured the Wanda Gag House, Minnesota Music Hall of Fame, New Ulm Public Library, New Ulm Community Access Television studio, Wastewater Treatment Plant, Turner Hall (where they had a delicious lunch and heard a presentation on the Heart of New Ulm Project), Brown County Historical Museum and ended out day at the top of Hermann Monument. Special thanks to our day-chairs, Lisa Grathwohl (City of New Ulm employee) and Brian Serbus (Southpoint Federal Credit Union employee), both were participants in last year's Network Brown County Program. Others involved with the day were our hosts at the places we visited – John Isch, Jim Boeck, Charlie Braunreiter, Larry Hlavsa, Dan Anderson, Dan O'Connor, Virginia Suker Moldan, Hally Glaubitz, and George Glotzbah. Thank you to the New Ulm Community for the wonderful day of exploration and opportunity to get to know you better.

Touring the exterior of the Wanda Gag House.

Group Photo on Hermann Monument

Tour Guide, George Glotzbach told us the history of Turner Hall and the Hermann Victory!